

BIG BROTHER IS WATCHING YOU

Greetings, everybody! Here we are at Bible study. The new moon of the fourth month was sighted in Israel June 10 at 7:30 p.m. which means Tuesday was the new moon day. The fixed Jewish calendar is two days early in declaring the new moon this month. The Sabbath is independent of the new moon, so we can't get the Sabbath wrong and there are no annual holy days this month to get wrong. The Hebrew word "kodesh" means new month, and is also translated "new moon" which begins the new month. The Hebrew (Biblical) new month begins by the sighting of the first visible crescent sliver of the moon. The Jews admit that they changed from the new moon observance to the Hillel II calculated fixed (mathematical-astronomical calendar) in 360 A.D. The Sanhedrin (Jews religious governing court of elders and priests) has been reestablished in Jerusalem (12/09/04) and has recently taken a leading role in rebuilding the third temple.

English peas, garlic, corn and potatoes are planted in the garden and we've harvested radishes from the garden. The two volunteer squash plants are doing very well, along with the herbs of parsley and thyme. We are still refreshed from spending four days in Southern California with our children and grandchildren. Our newest member Alessandro, who was one year old on June 2nd, is recovered from his high fevers with appropriate measures and care. Before we left home, Cappy prayed that on this visit we would have no untoward words, events, or physical mishaps. Gratefully, God answered our prayers (and those of others) in a timely manner that blessed us all with peace of mind. Having the opportunity to see, touch and hug, share meals together, laugh each day and reaffirm our unity was special! It is not my job to argue with family or others. They have their own lives to live and are raising their own families. If they ask for information, we give it to them. Cappy shares various things of interest in health and family.

This is something that I wish we all could and would take time to do in connecting with our spiritual family. Even in a spiritual family there are many different opinions on doctrine and especially on prophecy. When looking for the unity we would like to see and have in the church, there is precious little unity even among those who keep Sabbath days (weekly and annual) because we go by different calendars and details with confusion of face. 1 Corinthians 14:33—God is not the author of confusion. James 3:16—Where there is envying and strife, there is confusion. Ephesians 2:3—man by nature lives and converses in the lusts of his flesh, fulfilling the desires of the flesh and of the mind. People, generically speaking, that I call brethren believe in Christ and his Holy Spirit, believe the Bible is the inspired written word of God, obey the health laws and keep the seventh-day Sabbath and holy days. But they may not know (or have) the true calendar, keep Passover and Pentecost—much less know how to keep it or the right way to count it.

Revelation 12:9—the great dragon was cast out, that old serpent, called the Devil and Satan, which deceives the whole world. 1 John 3:8—"He that commits sin is of the devil; for the devil sinned from the beginning. For this purpose the son of God was manifested, that he might destroy the works of the devil." Satan has done a fine job of sowing the seeds of confusion that manifests himself as an angel of light. He has blinded the eyes of this world today to the precious truth of the gospel of the kingdom of God and his salvation. Our political leaders say they have the answers and have none and are spiritually bankrupt. We are living in the days of the final count-down to the coming of Messiah, the end of this age and the battle of Armageddon.

Christ taught his disciples the “BE Attitudes” found in Matthew 5. He gave them the manner of how to pray and fast (Matthew 6) and ask, seek and knock in his name according to His will) because “your Father (God) knows what things you have need of, before you ask him.” In Matthew 24:3-27—Jesus answered his disciples’ question, “What shall be the sign of your coming and the end of the world (end of the age)?” He cautioned them in Verse 4 to: “Take heed that no man deceive you. Many shall come in my name, saying I am Christ; and shall deceive many.” Many thought the highly publicized “end of the Mayan Calendar 2012” may be the “literal end of the age”. But it was not. This present time is a transition period.

Bible prophecy shows that the end of the age is going to come in this generation—the re-founding of the state of Israel (May 14, 1948) in the Holy Land. Psalm 90:10 –“the days of our years are threescore (60) years and ten (70); and if by reason of strength they be fourscore years (80) yet their span is but trouble and sorrow, for they quickly pass, and we fly away. Who knows the power of your anger? Your wrath is as great as the fear that is due you. Teach us to number our days aright, that we may gain a heart of wisdom.” From the year 1948 + 70 brings us to the year 2018 which is five years from now. Is it possible that all these things prophesied in the Bible happen in the next five years? Yes, possible but only God knows. Add ten years to 2018 (70 year generation) that would make it an 80-year generation from the re-founding of the nation of Israel in 1948 A.D. would then be completed by 2028 A.D.

World News shows that the stage is being set for a lot of dire prophecies to start to come to pass. Even though we have been warning about this for years, our understanding is unfolded a bit at a time as God gives us His understanding and knowledge. Archbishop Usher shows quite clearly in his research that Creation was 2004 BC so that 6,000 years was over in the year 1997 (15 years ago). I thought for a while maybe God may have added seven years, because according to the book of Jubilees (which is extra canonical literature (B.C. before the time of Christ) Adam and Eve were in the Garden of Eden seven years to the exact day before they ate the forbidden fruit and transgressed God’s law and were cast out of the Garden of Eden. Subtract seven years from the day of Creation of Adam and Eve (2004 BC which Usher shows clearly) comes to 3997 BC. If you then count the 6,000 years from the year 3997BC of man being under the rule and influence of Satan’s, rule on the earth Then the 6000 year-rule was not up until 2004 AD which was nine years ago.

The book of Isaiah and 2 Kings 20:1—shows that during the days of king Hezekiah, Hezekiah fell ill at a young age and Isaiah told him that God said for him to set his house in order because he was going to die. Hezekiah turned his face to the wall and wept bitterly, praying to God, saying that he had walked faithfully before God with wholehearted devotion and done what was good in God’s sight. “Before Isaiah left the middle court, God said, ‘Go back and tell Hezekiah, I have heard your prayer and seen your tears; I will heal you’.” God added fifteen years to Hezekiah’s life before judgment came. The Lord gave a sign to show that he would do what he promised and made the shadow of the sun go backward ten of the steps it had gone down on the stairway of Ahaz. This event was recorded not only in the history of the Chronicles of Israel, but in the prophecies of the book of Isaiah. Why would it be recorded there, unless it is a prophecy for the future? It could be an indication of an added fifteen years in the future of this end of age generation when God is once again dealing with Israel re-established in the Middle East as it is today, that God will give us fifteen more years additional time before the end of this age. Adding fifteen years to 2004 AD (2004 +15 =2019 AD) brings us to 2019 before Christ returns to judge the nations. The foregoing figures are just possibilities and do not prove anything, but are indications that may be true.

I see what is happening in America today and see a path of encroaching tyranny. As Breitbart pointed out Thursday, almost no mainstream media in the U.S. has been in front of any of the many, many scandals that have emerged in the early sledding of President Barack Obama’s second term. Over the past few weeks, there have been four major scandals which have recently been exposed in the American government over the Obama administration and it is a very sad (and frightening) truth that our pathetic, American lapdog mainstream media is not responsible for breaking even a single one.. The latest one has been the eves-dropping of the NSA compilation and storage of huge data bases of information of all computer generated conversations, emails and phone conversations around the world.

Most Americans are unaware, don't care or too busy with their own pleasures and trust the government to handle everything. One day people are going to wake up and realize the only one that man can trust is God and his word. John 8:42, 44—"Christ came from God who sent him." He told the legislators of his day, "You are of your father the devil and the works (lusts) of your father you will do. He was a murderer from the beginning, and abode not in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he speaks a lie, he speaks of his own: for he is a liar and the father of it." Christ spoke the truth.

News—"Warning: Obama's Secret Police Know You Are Reading This" (personalliberty.com 6/12/13)—A picture of a big eye as looking straight at the reader with the comment: "The only thing necessary for the triumph of evil is for good men to do nothing"—Edmund Burke. Burke was an Irish statesman, author, orator, political theorist and philosopher, who after moving to England, served for many years in the House of Commons of Great Britain as a member of the Whig party (1/12/1729 to 7/9/97).

"Do you feel safer knowing President Barack Obama's Secret Police—whoops, I mean his National Security Agency (NSA)—are monitoring your communications and everything that you read on the Internet, including these very words? Certainly you are supposed to feel safer. Just ask almost anyone in the mainstream media, as well as most Democrats and even Republicans in Congress (the very members we trust to protect our liberties). They are busy acquiescing to Obama's tyranny all in the name of national security. It seems the Obama-media and members of congress have not read a word of history, they seem to have never heard of a democratically elected leader who enslaved Europe and started a war that killed sixty million people while his government, police and justice system turned a blind eye to every excess. All they have to do is a Google search for "Adolf Hitler." Maybe they don't do that because it would be a record of subversive inquiries." America is not learning from past history, but ignoring it.

"James Bamford writes in The Shadow Factory: The Ultra-Secret NSA from 9/11 to the Eavesdropping on America. "There is now the capacity to make tyranny total in America. Yet it seems that no one seems to care," other than Libertarians like former Congressman Ron Paul, who said NSA revelations are "a predictable result of a government that continues to erode our liberties while promising some glimmering hope of security." "I was naïve enough to believe that others, like Senator Lindsey Graham (R-S.C.) would be outraged by the Obama Administration's attack on the 1st and the 4th Amendments. Graham says he is not sure who is entitled to 1st Amendment rights. It could be that Personal Liberty Digest and the people who comment on the column and stories don't have guaranteed protection. Graham said last week he is unconcerned that the Obama Administration has his Verizon phone records because he's not 'talking to terrorists' Graham told FOX News. I am glad the NSA is trying to find out what terrorists are up to overseas and inside the country. I don't think you're talking to terrorists, I know you're not, I know I'm not, so we don't have anything to worry about," Graham said.

"Graham also admitted that it wasn't until the news broke about the NSA the day before that he knew anything about what the top secret agency was going. I am glad Graham is sure they aren't doing anything bad. And I am really glad Graham has looked into his crystal ball and can predict that the Obama Administration will never abuse power. Greenwald says that terrorists who represent a threat to America have known for years that electronic traffic has been monitored and that is why they use couriers. It is amazing that our elected representatives will allow Obama to operate his spy net work without objection or restraint.” All must be ok, because Obama tells us so. “I am convinced that Obama is not interested in protecting America from terrorists.”

Personalliberty.com (6/7/20/13)—Whose Breaking News on White House Scandals? “Greenwald, the reporter from the Guardian who broke the NSA story told Piers Morgan on CNN: There is a massive apparatus within the U.S. government that with complete secrecy has been building this enormous structure that has only one goal, and that is to destroy privacy and anonymity, not just in the U.S. but around the world. It’s well past time that we have a debate about whether that’s the kind of country and world in which we want to live. We haven’t had that debate because it’s all done in secrecy and the Obama Administration has been very aggressive about it.” “On Friday, Obama explained that there is no need to worry or fuss and that our freedoms are being protected because his heart is in the right place. Somehow his rhetoric didn’t comfort me.”

“Big Brother Hears All” (6/7/13) –the USA Patriot Act was designed to catch “terrorists” and was not being used to spy on Americans, the National Security Agency is currently collecting the telephone records of millions of customers of Verizon. The records include both local calls and those made to people abroad. The UK Guardian obtained a copy of an order from the secret Foreign Intelligence Surveillance Court (FISA) requiring Verizon to divulge to the NSA its customer metadata from April 25, 2013 until July 19, 2013. The order directs Verizon to produce on a daily basis information that includes “session identifying information”, such as “originating and terminating number”, the duration of each call, telephone calling card numbers, trunk identifiers, International Mobile subscriber Identity (IMSI) number, and “comprehensive communication routing information”.

“Of course, this is not new. In 2006, USA Today reported the NSA had been secretly collecting the phone call records of tens of millions of Americans using AT&T, Verizon and BellSouth as part of a secret program implemented by President George W. Bush that saw the collection of domestic telephone, internet and email records. Senator Diane Feinstein, who chairs the Senate Select Committee on Intelligence says the program has been going on for years and regularly renewed.” They say it is needed for national security.

National Review (6/12/13) What about the surveillance of U.S. Mosques off limits? “Since October 2011 mosques have been off-limits to the FBI (in America). No more surveillance or undercover sting operations without high-level approval from a special oversight body at the Justice Department dubbed the Sensitive Operations Review Committee. Who makes up this body and how do they decide requests? Nobody knows; the names of the chairman, members and staff are kept secret. The panel was set up under pressure from Islamist groups who complained. Just months before the panel’s formation, the Council on American-Islamic Relations teamed up with the ACLU to sue the FBI for allegedly violating the civil rights of Muslims in Los Angeles by hiring an undercover agent to infiltrate and monitor mosques there. Before mosques were excluded from the otherwise wide domestic spy net the administration was casting, the FBI launched dozens of successful sting operations against homegrown jihadists – inside mosques – and disrupted dozens of plots against the homeland. This is certainly something that we should be asking about. The FBI never canvassed Boston mosques until four days after the April 15 attacks, and it did not check out the radical Boston mosque where the Muslim bombers worshipped. The bureau didn’t even contact mosque leaders for help in identifying their images after those images were captured on closed-circuit cameras and cell phones. One of the Muslim bombers made extremist outbursts during worship, yet because the mosque wasn’t monitored, red flags didn’t go off inside the FBI about his increasing radicalization before the attacks. This is particularly disturbing in light of recent independent surveys of American mosques which reveal some 80% of them preach violent jihad or distribute violent literature to worshippers.”

Shoebat Foundation blog (6/13/13) —Walid Shoebat is the author of The Case for Islamophobia: America's Final Warning. Confluence of Scandals: IRS, FBI and NSA. Question: “In light of what is known about the pervasiveness of the NSA surveillance program, shouldn't it now be considered scandalous that mosques are off-limits to the FBI, even though it's old news?”

“With respect to the NSA scandal, let's set aside the issue of criminality relative to leaker Edward Snowden's behavior and focus on the federal government's behavior. First, we know that the IRS deliberately profiled Jewish, Christian, and conservative Tea Party groups for discrimination; it's a matter of public record. We also know that the foundation of a radical Muslim who just so happens to be the half-brother of the President of the United States, received preferential, expeditious, retroactive and illegal customer service from the IRS in general, Lois Lerner in particular. Contrast that with what should have been viewed as a scandal long ago – mosques being off limits to the FBI.” Via Investor's Business Daily: “The White House assures that tracking our every phone call and keystroke is to stop terrorists, and yet it won't snoop in mosques, where the terrorists are. That's right, the government's sweeping surveillance of our most private communications excludes the jihad factories where homegrown terrorists are radicalized. No more surveillance of mosques? Isn't the revelation that all Americans are being surveilled the primary take-away from the details of the NSA program? So, if mosques are exempt from FBI surveillance, are they also exempt from NSA surveillance? If the answer to that question is yes, we may just have a reality that parallels what happened at the IRS – Islamic fundamentalists are given preferential treatment while law-abiding citizens are profiled.”

“NSA Surveillance and the Petraeus Effect” by Walid Shoebat a former Muslim Brotherhood Member who is now a peace activist. “That the Obama administration had the goods on CIA Director David Petraeus and used what it new to destroy him when he didn't play ball relative to Susan Rice's Benghazi talking points is as close to a self-evident truth as you can get. Perhaps that wasn't just about meeting out punishment to a disloyal subordinate. It may have also served as a shot across the bow to others who desperately want to keep their jobs.” God says righteousness exalts a nation. If there were no skeletons in closets to expose, then a nation would have nothing to hide or fear.

Attorney General Eric Holder was asked by Senator Mark Kirk (R-IL) if Holder could assure that “no phones inside the Capitol were monitored, of member of Congress.” Holder would not answer the question. “As a result, every member of Congress who had Petraeus-like secrets began taking inventory of what the administration might know. This is a perfectly logical conclusion, not simple speculation. Do you think the majority of Congress (both Republicans and Democrats) have secrets they want kept secret? Do you think that Holder's answer indicated that the administration has information about those secrets? Do you think Congressmen and Senators were able to infer that possibility, based on Holder's answer, Petraeus' treatment, and the scope of the NSA surveillance program?” Absolutely!

Consider Barack Obama's operation manual – Saul Alinsky's Rules for Radicals. There are two rules that would seem to apply here:

Rule #4: Make opponents live up to their own book of rules. “You can kill them with this, for they can no more obey their own rules than the Christian church can live up to Christianity.”

Rule #8: Keep the pressure on. Use different tactics and actions and use all events of the period for our purpose. The major premise for tactics is the development of operations that will maintain a constant pressure upon the opposition. It is this that will cause the opposition to react to your advantage.”

To illustrate usage of Rule #4, we have the virtually empirical evidence that Petraeus was destroyed (“killed”) by being made to live by his own book of rules. A four-star General / CIA Director having extra-marital affairs is something he would likely do anything to prevent from coming out. In the case of Petraeus, it appears he either wasn't willing to stretch the lie about Benghazi any further, consequences be damned OR he called the administration's bluff and guessed wrong. This reality is not lost on members of congress, especially in light of Holder's response to Kirk."

As for Rule #8, if Edward Snowden intended to harm the administration, he may have strengthened it. First, if there was a scandal that was really beginning to do damage, it was the IRS scandal. Attention has been re-directed to the NSA surveillance programs. It may just be that these revelations are not only not harming Obama but giving him the leverage to covertly coerce a majority of individuals in the branch of government that is supposed to keep him in check." With millions of new Democrats Obama's future in the Democratic Party will be assured. Obama knows divide and conquer is the name of the game.

"How else can we explain that while the administration is seemingly drowning in a sea of scandals, Obama's immigration agenda is sailing through congress? Why would Senator Marco Rubio (R-FL) totally and completely abandon the constituency without which he never would have gotten elected? Why would Rubio stand with the likes of Schumer, Durbin, and Menendez...on anything, let alone on such a divisive wedge issue? After the NSA surveillance program was leaked, Rubio twists the knife in the backs of conservatives just days later by going on Univision and telling the audience – in Spanish – that legalization comes first, then border security. This is anathema to the radio ads featuring Rubio's voice that have been played during Rush Limbaugh's commercial breaks. Saying one thing in English and another in Spanish is as Al-Jazeera does—says one thing in English and another in Arabic. It shouldn't be what a conservative U.S. Senator should do. What is utterly amazing is that scandal-ridden administrations are supposed to see their agendas dry up, not sped up." When another scandal strikes, the one before becomes old news and tends to take the people's minds off the previous scandal.

How does NSA determine who is a terrorist? Are you on the list for detention in case martial law is imposed during a "major national emergency"? Millions of Americans are designated as a threat to national security by U.S. government. The final judgment is left up to the FBI and government to decide the criteria that says who is a terrorist and who isn't. Are you a Christian? All they have to do is redefine "terrorist" to be anybody who believes in Jesus Christ, believes that Christ is coming again, anyone that believes that there is an Armageddon in our future, anyone that believes the Bible—is a potential terrorist. When they make that determination who are they going to find? A lot of Christians will be automatically classified as potential terrorists. Someday they can be rounded up and put in reeducation centers (prison camps / detention centers) in America.

Can it happen here? It happened in Germany that was a Democratic Republic until Adolph Hitler with his charismatic oratory took over with his Gestapo and brown shirts. Now we have Obama building his private citizen army. A lot of people do not believe this could happen in America. By the grace of God we still have the freedom of speech in this country. However, it is becoming increasingly dangerous for citizens to speak out about anything anti-government, and that includes Congress—Senators and House of Representatives who all now realize they are being spied upon and their secrets are in the hands of the government." Their reputations and jobs are at stake and should they get on the bad side of President Obama, they could become history.

Founder and long-time director of the FBI (1924-1972), J. Edgar Hoover, was a prime example of wielding intelligence information and controversial tactics over many groups, agencies and influential individuals. It is believed that he had so much sensitive information about each leader (ie, Truman, Kennedy, and Johnson) that they were unable to remove him from office. Hoover also maintained strong support in Congress, possibly due to the intelligence he had gathered about individual politicians, and he remained director under every president from Coolidge to Nixon until his death (5/2/72). People tend to believe anything that they hear. God says “prove all things”. Trust but verify—double check information and its source. My wife’s mother from the South used to call smooth-talking, slick-looking men who were con artists that made themselves appear to be an important “well-to-do” somebody, “grand rascals”. There are a lot of these types still around today who are corrupt in their heart.

Didn’t Obama say he is a Christian and went to Columbia University? And 2003, he declared that the Patriot Act was “shoddy and dangerous” and something he would help dispose of if he was elected to the U.S. Senate. The Patriot Act is still in effect and he is using it to his advantage. William Pitt, the British prime minister of the late 18th century, understood: “Unlimited power is apt to corrupt the minds of those who possess it.”

The Washington Post (6/14/13)—“Obama Family Vacation to Africa”. Between $60 and $100 million worth of Federal assets—including a large naval ship, 56 support vehicles, truckloads of bullet proof glass, fighter jets and hundreds of Federal personnel – will soon be shipped to sub-Saharan Africa. Is a small scale military operation being planned in an area of civil unrest? Nope...President Barack Obama is taking the wife and kids on vacation. The costly preparations for the Presidential vacation were revealed in documents obtained by The Washington Post. According to a confidential internal planning document obtained by the Washington Post, hundreds of Secret Service agents will be dispatched to secure facilities in Senegal, South Africa, and Tanzania, which the first family will visit from June 26 to July 3.

A Navy aircraft carrier or amphibious ship, with a fully staffed medical trauma center, will be stationed offshore in case of an emergency. In addition, military cargo planes will airlift in 56 support vehicles, including 14 limousines and three trucks carrying bulletproof glass to cover the windows on the hotels where the Obamas will stay. Fighter jets will fly in shifts to provide around the clock coverage over the president’s airspace, so they can intervene quickly if an errant plane gets too close. While the preparations appear to be in line with similar travels in the past, the document offers an unusual glimpse into the colossal efforts to protect the U.S. Commander -in-chief on trips abroad. The Secret Service reportedly has had to cut $84 million, and this spring the agency canceled public tours of the White House in order to save $74,000 a week in overtime.

The Blaze.com (6.14.20)—Conservative radio host, Rush Limbaugh on Friday put forth a theory as to “Why GOP is willing to pass amnesty and create millions of “instant” Democrats.” The Republican Party is embarrassed (shamed) by its own base. The radio host went on to tell a story about his first ever trip to the Hampton’s where he was visiting a famous American Republican. After dinner on the deck, a guy comes up to me— it is a name you’d know, but I’m not going to tell you who—punches me with his finger in the chest and says, “What are you going to do about the Christians?” The man complained about “pro-lifers” hurting the GOP with their stance on abortion. Some of the same people have done the same thing to me on gun control,” Limbaugh added. “I assume that some Republicans think there is a new group of people that would become their base, IF they

- just got rid of these pro-lifers
- just got rid of the Christians
- just got rid of these gun control nuts!”

personalliberty.com (6/7/13)—This past Monday, Secretary of State John Kerry said in a prepared statement that Obama will sign a controversial gun-control treaty promulgated by the United Nations. “We look forward to signing it as soon as the process of conforming the official languages is completely satisfied.” Although the treaty is being touted as a way to prevent “illicit trade in conventional weapons,” it actually does far more than that. Among other outrages, it demands that every nation create a registry of gun owners, manufacturers and trades within its borders. And also that each country establish mechanisms that could prevent private individuals from purchasing ammunition for any weapons they do own. This U.N. treaty would mean the end of our 2nd Amendment rights. Resolutions condemning the treaty were promptly introduced in both branches of Congress declaring that the U.N. Arms Trade Treaty “poses significant risks to the national security, foreign policy, and economic interests of the United States, as well as to the constitutional rights of United States citizens and the United States sovereignty.”

“There is no doubt that an overwhelming majority of Americans would oppose it— if the media ever told them about it. A majority of Senators have publicly declared their opposition to this dangerous treaty and in March, Sen. Jim Inhofe (R-Okla.) submitted an amendment to the budget bill that urged the Obama Administration “to uphold Second Amendment rights and prevent the United States from entering into the United Arms Trade Treaty.’ Inhofe’s amendment was approved by a vote of 53 to 46. The Constitution says for any treaty to take effect it will have to get a positive vote by two-thirds of the Senate.”

The Debka Newsletter (6/14/13)—U.S. Ambassador to Israel Dan Shapiro conveyed warm wishes from President Barack Obama, Secretary of State John Kerry and the American people to the gay parade which took place in Tel Aviv Friday. “There’s no better place to celebrate than in Tel Aviv, the friendliest city in the world to the LGBT community,” said the ambassador. Obama is endorsing the gay mantra around the world.

Shoebat.com—“Obama’s Brother Works with Man Who attacked US Embassy” by Theodore Shoebat, son of Walid Shoebat. “Thanks to my father we now know that Obama’s brother, Malik Obama is deeply associated with Omar al-Bashir, the one who was behind the attack on the U.S. embassy in Khartoum, Sudan, which occurred at around the same time as the Benghazi attack. I was the first to write on this in English when the attack first happened, stating: ‘The Attacks by Muslims on American embassies in Egypt and Libya has shocked the media enough, but now North Sudan has just exploded, with mobs raiding both the British, German and American embassies.’ Who is responsible? According to Al-Rakoba, a Sudanese news site, it is Omar al-Bashir, the president of North Sudan, and his despotic government who is behind this. Al-Bashir is a modern Hitler, an Islamic tyrant responsible for the deaths of over three-million people, all in the name of Jihad and war against Christians and the non-Arab Muslims of Darfur.”

In 2012, Shoebat wrote an article showing how while Obama has supported the Islamic uprisings in the Middle East, he has in fact stopped a revolution against the Hitler of Africa, Omar al-Bashir. “The support of the rebels in Syria, and the condemnation of Assad by the Obama administration can only make one question as to why he is against this particular regimen, but not that of Omar al Bashir. At one point Obama prevented Salva Kiir, [the Christian president] president of South Sudan, from aiding rebels who wanted to topple al-Bashir’s regime, and replace it with a secular government.”

“Malik is the Executive Secretary for the Islamic Da’wa Organization (IDO), which is stationed in Khartoum, Sudan and which has its primary focus in expanding Wahhabist Islam in the African subcontinent. It was in Khartoum that Bashir declared that he was going to make Sudan’s new constitution ‘100 percent Islamic’. Malik Obama shares the same desires as Bashir, in fact both of them attended the General conference of the Islamic Council of South Sudan –pro-Muslim and very anti-Christian. Bashir’s uncle, Eltayeb Mustafa, who is a part of Bashir’s government, supported a fatwa (Muslim declaration) that said: One of the greatest calamities and evils is to permit an exhibition entitled ‘the Holy bible,’ this lying forgery, which allows the kufars [non-Muslims] to spread their religion amongst Muslims, and fascinate the common man, that Christianity prevents them from carrying out the path of Allah. The duty for whomever Allah has given a hand by leader or man of responsibility is to prevent this evil, or else he is a traitor to Allah, and his prophet and to the Muslim community. Bashir’s government is executing the dechristianization of and the systematic holocaust of Christians in his country. This anti-Christian sentiment which Malik Obama upholds and instills is exactly what is fueling the violence against Christians in Africa. Foreign missionaries have been forcibly deported, and churches have been bulldozed. In 2012, Bashir gave Christians till March 1st to leave North Sudan, but half a million of them were stranded, leaving them open targets for Muslims thirsty for Christian blood. Malik Obama is not only working with a terrorist who attacked the United States, but also a mass murderer.”

Ezekiel 28 speaks of the end-time prince (ruler) of Tyrus (the end-time Babylon/ America) a great world-trading megalopolis. Tyre’s proud ruler is rebuked because his heart is lifted up (proud), and “you have said, I am a god, I sit in the seat of God, in the midst of the seas; yet you are a man, and not God, though you set your heart as the heart of God. Behold, you are wiser than Daniel. With your wisdom and your understanding you have gained riches for yourself, and gathered gold and silver into your treasuries. By your great wisdom in trade you have increased your riches and your heart has grown proud.” Daniel was a man of God who had wisdom and political acumen and was an advisor to several different governments successively in Babylon and then Persia! He survived the Babylonian Empire and continued in an esteemed advisor position in the Persian Empire.

Note: In Ezekiel 28:11-17, as in Isaiah 14:12-17, the language goes beyond the king of Tyre to Satan, inspirer and unseen ruler of all such pomp and pride as that of Tyre. Gen. 3:14-15 and Matt.16:23 are other instances of thus indirectly addressing Satan. The unfallen state of Satan is here described; his fall is written in Isaiah 14. See Rev. 20:10 Moreover, the vision is not of Satan in his own person, but of Satan fulfilling himself through an earthly king who arrogates to himself honors, so that the prince of Tyre foreshadows the beast (Dan 7:8; Rev. 19:20).

The Obama Administration is just beginning to show its true colors and definitely is anti-Christian. This Administration is storing up records on everyone. Barack Obama said: “Whatever we once were, we are no longer a Christian nation...” and he is not a Christian. Is Obama a Muslim wolf in Christian clothing? According to Edward Klein, The Amateur: Barack Obama in the White House, Obama used Wright by cultivating a relationship for his own political gain, namely to cover his Islamic beliefs. Klein asked Wright: “Did you convert Obama from Islam to Christianity?” Wright replied, “I think I convinced him that it is ok for him to make a choice in terms of who he believed Jesus is. And I told him it was really okay and not a putdown of the Muslim part of his family or his Muslim friends.” Lieutenant Governor E.W. Jackson wrote in a 2020 blog that Obama has “Muslim sensibilities” and a “Muslim perspective” to view the world and has taken an anti-Semitic approach to the White House that he “picked up from the black community.” What exactly are the president’s thoughts on Islam? In his own words: “We will encourage more Americans to study in Muslim communities.” Obama refuses to use the words “extremist Muslims” or Muslim Jihadists and is very protective of Muslim rights even above Christian rights.

John 16:1-3—“These things have I spoken to you that you should not be offended. They shall put you out of the synagogues: yes, the time comes that whosoever kills you will think that he does God service. And these things will they do to you, because they have not known the Father, nor me. But these things have I told you, that when the time shall come, you will remember that I told you of them. And these things I said not at the beginning because I was with you. But now I go my way to him that sent me.”

1 Thess. 4:8--God has sent his Holy Spirit to inspire his people (guide, guard, direct, protect and comfort --Jn. 14:16-17; Rom.8:26-27). The Holy Spirit will give us the words to witness and stand firm for the truth through the power of God. Let’s thank God for his truth and presence in our life and give Him the praise, the honor, and the glory. Blessed be the name of the Lord our God and Yeshua, now and forever!
